

Name of the Educational Institution	LEPL “Batumi Shota Rustaveli State University” Address: №35 Ninoshvili Str. Batumi 6010 Tel/Fax: (0422) 27 17 87 E-mail: info@bsu.edu.ge
Title of the Educational Program	Bachelor’s Educational Program “Translation Studies”
Qualification conferred	Bachelor of Humanities in Translation Studies
Program Volume in Credits	240 ECTS credits
Aim of the Educational Program	The goal of the program is to train a competitive specialist with the relevant theoretical and practical skills, which will become the basis for his successful future career. The graduates will master the basics of the general and specific translation theories, learn about the significant development stages of the Translation Studies, generate skills of translation various types of texts, They also will develop the necessary basics of philology, and general skills of socialization: skills for working on the text, ability to understand and interpret the problematic issues, ability in formulate their own opinions/arguments regarding the problems, Information extraction and processing by means of new technologies, using them to develop essays and presentations; Will introduce themselves with the teaching and learning with application of new technologies.
Learning Outcomes	Knowledge and understanding: The BA student has extensive knowledge of the Translation Studies, of its basic theories and history; 2) Has a command of translation types and strategies; 3) has an extensive knowledge of the general and specific theories of translation, is aware of the complex issues of written and oral translation; 4) has B2 level of language skills, has established appropriate language skills (listening, speaking, reading, writing). 5) Knows structural and lexical-semantic features of the language of study; 6) knows the World (in accordance with the selected module), literature and culture; 7) has critically analyzed modern achievements of the Translation Studies. (Literary translation, the sociopolitical discourse in translation, the translation of documents, etc.). Application of knowledge in Practice: 1.) The BA graduates are able to integrate the gained knowledge in practice, carry out translations from European languages into Georgian and vice versa; 2) express their opinions in both oral and written communication modes, in reports, BA papers etc.; 3) are able of understanding, analysis, referral, interpreting various topics in cognitive texts and integrate with the knowledge of interrelated disciplines. 4) hold skills of translational transformations, of finding solutions and of analysis, and are able to conduct applied research with particular methods as directed by the supervisor, Can use skills of writing, reading, interpretation as well as translation strategies to translate source-language texts in the target language. Conclusion Making Skills: 1) The BA degree holders are able to collect, analyze and draw argumentative conclusions on the philological data (in general, particularly in the field of translation). 2) are capable of critical analysis and interpretation in the process drawing argumentative conclusions. Communication Skills: 1) The BA degree holders are able to develop detailed written report about the ideas of problems solutions; Reflect their knowledge in the reports, undergraduate theses and papers, carry our oral exchange with the specialists in Georgian language; Translate from foreign language to the mother tongue; 2) Are able of successful communication and presentation in the relevant European language; Translation and interpretation from the Mother tongue to the European language; 3) Have command of the modern information and communication technologies and can use them in oral and written presentations in Georgian and European languages. Are able of consistent and versatile assessment of the knowledge in Translation Studies to identify the need of further studying; In particular, can enroll for a Master's degree in philology, linguistics, translation studies, literature and other areas. Learning Skills: 1) The students can further enrich their knowledge taking part in different training and exchange programs and grant competitions. 2) Are capable of translational knowledge and further studies to establish a coherent and comprehensive. In particular, can enroll for a Master's degree in philology, linguistics, by translational, literature and other areas. Values: 1) The BA graduates will have realized and understood the national and universal values, traditions; They will be trained with the ideals of humanism, democracy, liberal principles, being critically minded free individuals who have the ability of intercultural relations, with the sense of civility. 2) They will be able to play cultural mediators, or mediate in multilingual communication; 3) They will have generated a sense of civility and be ready to establish their professional and social life.

Assessment	Students are evaluated according to the following system: a) (A) – Excellent - 91 points and more; b) (B) – Very Good - 81-90 points; c) (C) – Good 71-80 points; d) (D)– Satisfactory 61-70 points; e) (E) – Sufficient 51-60 points; (FX) – could not pass 41-50 points. Student has the right to take the additional exam once more; (F) – Fail 0-40 points. Student has to take the course again.
Contact Person	Marine Aroshidze, Professor Tel.: +995 577 141030 E-mail: marina.aroshidze@bsu.edu.ge Marine Giorgadze, Professor Tel.: +995 577 179799 E-mail: marina.giorgadze@bsu.edu.ge