Dear Sir/Madam,

With this letter we would like to inform you about the possibility of participation in the International Student Conference organized by the Cold War History Research Center at Corvinus University of Budapest, in collaboration with the European Institute at Columbia University.

You can find the Call for Papers attached below. The deadline for proposal submission is May 10, 2017.

We would be grateful, if you would be so kind and pass on the information to the appropriate party.

P.S. In case if interested in our internship opportunities, please check out Internship Call attached below, or visit our website.

Here you can find the details concerning the International Conference, Organizers and our focus of research:

Since 2010, the Center has organized seven International Conferences, this time it will be the 8th Annual International Conference. The location is in the beautiful landscape and weather of sunny Budapest.

The Cold War History Research Center was established in December 1998. One of the main goals of the Center is to provide research support for the International History Project (CWIHP) and the National Security Archive (NSA) in Washington D.C. since the early nineteen-nineties.

For further details, please visit: <http://coldwar.hu/>

The conference is organized in collaboration with the European Institute at Columbia University, New York. European Institute is Co-organizer.

For further details, please visit: <http://www.columbia.edu/>

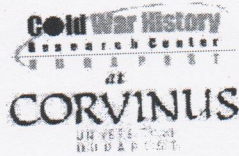

Thank you for your time and collaboration.

Kind regards,

Tsotne TCHANTURIA, Ph.D. Student (Mr.)

8th Annual International Student Conference of the Cold War History Research Center at Corvinus University of Budapest

CALL FOR PAPERS
from BA, MA and doctoral students

The Cold War History Research Center is now accepting proposals for its 8th Annual International Student Conference to be held at Corvinus University of Budapest (Központ utca 4-6), on June 6-7, 2017.

This year the conference will be organized in collaboration with the European Institute at Columbia University, New York.

As was the case with our previous conferences, this year's Conference will focus also on the Cold War era in general, and on the post-Cold War period.

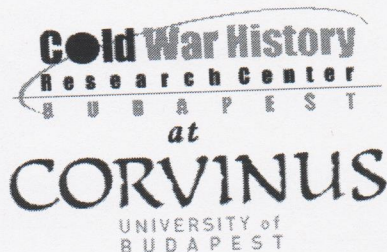

Possible topics may include (but are not limited) the following sections: Hungary in the Cold War
East Central Europe in the Cold War and its Aftermath
Western Europe and the Cold War
The Soviet Union and the United States in the Cold War
Asia and Africa in the Cold War and its Aftermath
International Relations during the Cold War
International Relations in the post-Cold War era

Please, send us an abstract on any of the above mentioned topics. Abstracts should be approximately 3000–5000 characters long and should be sent in Word format via Email to Research Coordinator, PhD candidate Tsothe Tchanturia:
coldwarhistoryresearchcenter@gmail.com

The deadline for proposal submission is May 10, 2017.

Selected participants will be asked to make a 20-minute presentation at the conference; a written paper is no requirement.

About us: The Cold War History Research Center's main mission is to become a virtual center for Cold War history research in East Central Europe and through the Center's web site (www.coldwar.hu), established in 2000 to become the main provider of freely available English language online materials concerning research on contemporary history of the former Soviet Bloc countries. In 2012 we started to publish an extensive Chronology of the Soviet Bloc (1945–1991) which is now completed up to 1980. For the program of our previous conferences and for more information about the Center and its internship program, please visit our website or contact Tsothe Tchanturia at the email address above.

Hungary, Spring /Autumn Semesters of the Academic years
2016/17 – 2017/18

The Cold War History Research Center Budapest seeks students from any field interested in the 20th Century and/or Cold War history, open to an international working environment, for substantive, research-centered internship positions. Now we call for applications for the period between March, 2017 and December, 2017.

Possible tasks for interns:

Gathering knowledge on 20th Century Hungarian, East European and Cold War History, included conducting research for professional background of TV programs (documentary films). (Research in libraries, archives and online databases.)
Facebook-post writing and raising our website's awareness through our social network
Editing and developing the Center's website www.coldwar.hu (including compiling chronologies, bibliographies and other research aids) and cataloguing its library
Translating to English and/or proofreading
Eventually team-leading of common projects, taking part in the event organization of the Center and helping to hand in applications for international tenders

Current research projects:

A Chronology of the Soviet Bloc, 1945–1991 (Main project for 2009–2017)
So-called "On this day" project at our Facebook profile
The Collapse of Communism and the End of the Cold War, 1988–1991
East-Central Europe and the German question
Hungary and the East-West relationship and Hungary's relationship to the countries of the Soviet Bloc
The history of the Warsaw Pact

Required language skills: English is a must, any language of the Eastern-European region is a plus, Hungarian is an asset.

Payment unfortunately cannot be provided by the Center but we can guarantee Flexible working hours! The internships, however, are eligible for scholarship funding from the European Union. Please contact your university's ERASMUS or other international coordinator, career service or try to arrange other ways of funding if required.

NEW: We are able to organize your internship in a corresponding form as well!

If you are interested, please contact research coordinator, Tsotne Tchaturia at coldwarhistoryresearchcenter@gmail.com. Please include: an up-to-date CV and a cover letter specifying areas of interest and/or expertise. Kindly indicate information on projected time frame and duration of your internship and if you wish to take the opportunity to work for us in a corresponding form or in a traditional way.
